

December 3, 2007

The Board of Directors of the Independent Production Fund announced its decisions for the October 2007 round of applications:

The following four dramatic television series received equity financing:

Projects	Production Company	Broadcaster(s)
Dad's in the Attic	Muse Entertainment Enterprises Inc.	YTV
High Court	Shaftesbury Inc.	Family Channel
Lance et compte: Le grand duel	Gaéa Films inc.	Groupe TVA

In addition, the following organizations received professional development grants:

Organization	Événement
Banff Television Festival Foundation	Banff World Television Festival
Creative Women Workshops Association	Women in the Director's Chair Workshop
Saskatchewan Motion Picture Association	Saskatchewan Film & Video Showcase

The Independent Production Fund is incorporated as a private foundation with charitable status. It operates on the interest generated by an endowment valued at $38 million, and by recoupment from its investments. An independent Board of Directors representing the industry oversees the operations of the fund and makes all investment decisions.

The IPF also administers the COGECO Fund and the Bell Broadcast and New Media Fund.
